INTERDICTION ASSOCIATION

NARCOTICS INTERDICTION
OFFICER OF THE YEAR (NIOY)

The Narcotics Interdiction Officer of the Year (NIOY) award will be presented annually to a member of the international law enforcement community who has distinguished him or herself through dedicated service and personal achievement in drug interdiction duties. Nominees must be active law enforcement officers working full or part-time in the field of domestic or international drug interdiction.

Submission of applications must be completed and returned (post-marked) to INIA no later than May 1, 2019. Nominations received after this date will not be considered for the NIOY award. Nominators can be any co-worker, supervisor, other officer or employee of a law enforcement agency, or member of INIA.

All nominees must have participated in drug interdiction as his or her regular duties (either full or part time) during all or part of the rating period. The rating period documenting the nominees will be from June 1, 2018 to the filing closure date, May 1, 2019.

Nomination applications should include the following information: 1) The background of the nominee; 2) A description of the nominee's accomplishments in his or her work assignment including specific significant cases involving the interdiction of narcotics, innovative techniques in interdiction, and overall statistical performance; 3) The nominee's contribution to his or her agency or agencies in the nominee's law enforcement community; 4) The nominee's accomplishments personally, as a citizen, in his or her community, and/or any additional qualifying information that will assist in selecting the most worthy candidate for the NIOY award.

The NIOY recipient will be awarded lifetime membership status with INIA, which gives the officer lifetime membership to the website membership areas.

*This does not include registration fees to any INIA training, including our annual conference.
